

The student has a right to renounce his/her right to study. Notice of renouncement must be given in writing. The notice is to be delivered to the Study Services. The study right will be ended on the day that the notification of renouncing the study right is submitted. The decision to renounce the study right is binding.

The only way to regain the study right is to take part in the normal student selection process.

I hereby renounce my study right at the University of the Arts Helsinki.
